2. WHAT'S HE UP TO NOW

6. ...WELL, ISN'T THAT WHAT EVERYBODY THINKS?

7. ...well, he says we could learn about fraternity from the Freemasons, then we wouldn't need to evangelise other than from the pulpit as the churches would be full of people attending in the hope of bettering themselves

8. HE'S OFF HIS TROLLEY - THERE ARE FOLK IN OUR CHURCH WHO HAVEN'T SPOKEN TO ME FOR YEARS, NEVER MIND HELPED ME

Issue 64

I've heard the word 'love' spoken and preached to many times to remember, but I have never come across a church, or fellowship who understood the meaning of the word and practised it. Unless the 'church' starts 'loving' each other it will remain the clanging gong that the Apostle Paul warned against.

1. It's getting a bit political this newsletter

3. ...last time it was going on about Rickergate as Reivergate

4. YES, ANYONE WOULD THINK WE HAVEN'T GOT ANY POLTICIANS, LET THEM SORT IT OUT

5. ...yes they know what they are doing

2. YES - I'M NOT SURE THAT IT IS A GOOD IDEA

6. ...AND NOW IT'S GOING ON ABOUT BOTCHERATE AS REIVERGATE

7. ...we should leave the Reivers alone, the days of intimidation, destruction and violence are over

8. ABSOLUTELY - WELL, EXCEPT FOR RICKERGATE AND BOTCHERATE

9. ...mmm, maybe the answer is more Reiver tourist attractions

What do you think?

Issue 63

The City of Carlisle has raised up the Border Reivers as tourist attractions, even though they murdered, raped, blackmailed and made the Borderlands a lawless place of intimidation and fear. Is it any wonder such lawlessness has manifest itself in the city to the point of needing to close streets to traffic to enable drunks and drugies to stagger and vomit where they will? Respectable home owners are also living under the threat of compulsory purchase in order to build more commercial properties. Mammon must be delighted.

1. October's 'Is The Time Right' was a good idea

3. ...the 'Bethlehem' three day event in December could be a great outreach.

4. YES, AND OUR BISHOP'S ARE BOLDLY SPEAKING OUT THE TRUTH

5. ...we all need to be led

6. ...AND THERE'S SO MUCH TO GET INVOLVED WITH TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

7. ...if only we had the time

8. YEAH...THERE IS NEVER ENOUGH TIME

9. ...talking of time isn't it time for Coronation Street

Issue 62

Once in a blue moon some church leaders find enough common ground to share an initiative. Their disciples follow and help out. Some pew sitters trot along to show solidarity and for a brief time a shaft of hope pierces the cloud. However, the brutal truth is that most Christians are so wrapped up in their own struggles, or pleasure, they cannot muster any enthusiasm to help folk in their own church never mind find the time to evangelise.
